Details of the pre-application advice received

There is heritage benefit from securing the building's future maintenance and the current windows and doors are modern and installed as part of the conversion of the former farm buildings to a dwelling.
Their significance is therefore likely to be limited or neutral - however the original form and appearance of the openings and reveals to the barn walls will have significance and would need to be preserved.

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
