Dove House Tennis Court – Site area photos

Figure 5

01 Standing within the proposed court area looking north to where the court would be built in the immediate foreground. The house can be seen through the gap in the hedge.

02 Standing within the garden beyond the north end of the proposed court area looking south to where the court would be built in the enclosed lawned area.

03 The view of the proposed court area from the house. The court would be approx. 52 metres from the house in the lower area on the other side of the gap in the hedge.

04 Standing at the north west corner of the proposed court area looking south east to where the court would be built in the immediate foreground. The court would be screened by hedges and trees along the boundary of the lawned area.
