Dear applicant

Please find attached the site notice for your planning application. It is a requirement of planning law that a site notice must be displayed for a period of 21 days for this proposed development. We request that the applicant/agent assists us in this respect by displaying the notice as soon as possible and emails photographs of it in situ to the planning officers email address shown below.
meredith.baker@wiltshire.gov.uk.

If you are unable to display the notice, please email the officer above as soon as possible in order that we are aware of the need to erect a notice.

The notice will be recorded as being displayed by the planning officer during his/her inspection of the site. If the notice is not displayed at the time of the visit, it may delay the planning application decision.

Thank you for your co-operation in this matter.

Yours faithfully,
Head of Development Management
