The Coach House, 5c Ash Walk, Warminster, Wiltshire, BA12 8PY

Above: Canopy porch extension added to the front elevation of The Coach House, to provide a covered entrance to the property for times of adverse weather etc..

Above: Partial view of canopy porch extension and fencing erected to create a private garden for the occupiers of The Coach House

Above: View of property from existing parking forecourt, note new porch and fencing is screened from view by existing parked vehicles

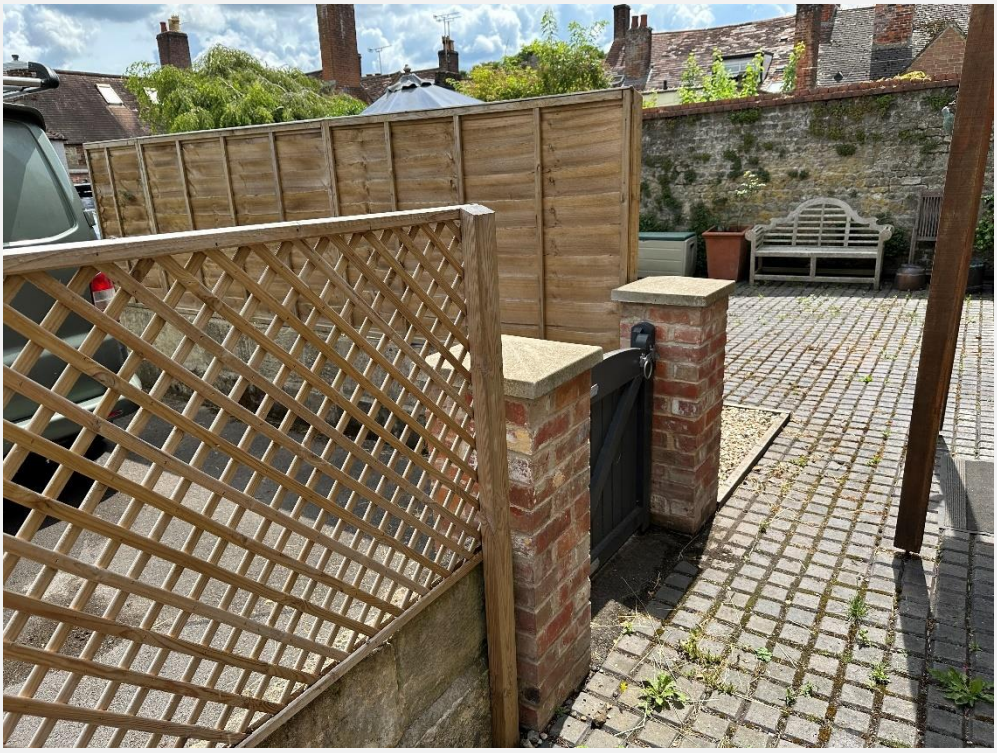
Above & Below: Photographs showing the close-proximity of the residential flats at 5 Ash Walk to the private amenity areas/ garden belonging to The Coach House

Above: Side view of the lightweight canopy porch extension added - please note the simplicity of the design and the modest projection. The materials used are also natural (timber and slate) and are sympathetic to the character and appearance of the existing building



Above: Private garden area created by fencing erected - this area would otherwise be fully exposed to views/ overlooking from 5 Ash Walk and other adjoining neighbours

Above: View of The Coach House from the neighbours driveway – note how the fencing erected retains privacy for the occupiers without causing any visual harm
