EV Charge Point Application

The proposed charge point will be located on the outside north facing wall under one of the windows seen in the photo of the north elevation of the kitchen and porch extension. The floor plan of the kitchen and porch shows the location of the fuse box above the door to the lounge. The cable would run along the internal porch wall from the fuse box and through the wall to the charge point