

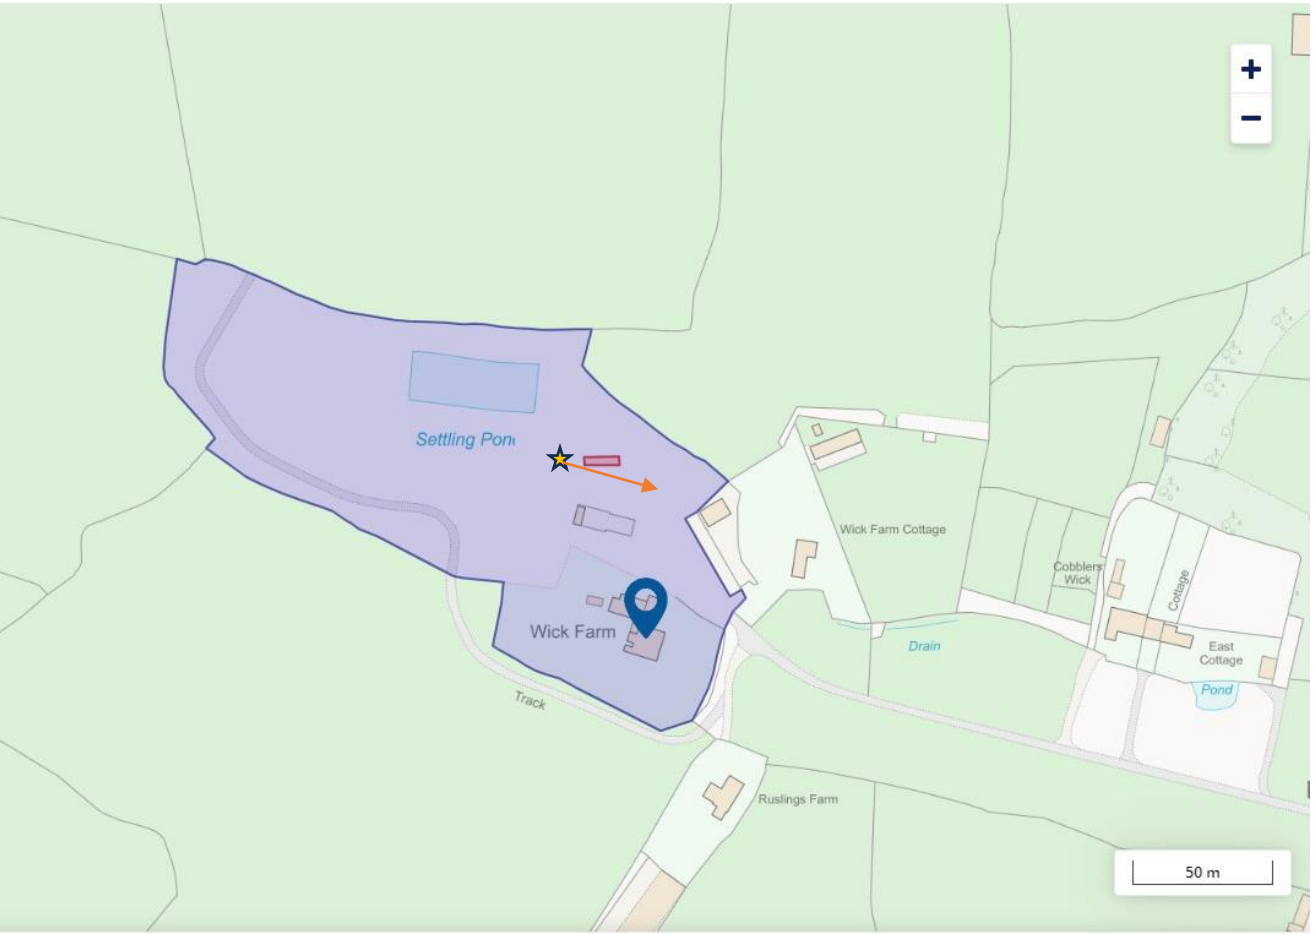
- Annotations show the proposed solar panels would be between 14.2m and 16.5m at their closest point to the boundary
- Blue borders show the property owned by our landlord, Nicholas Money-Kyrle. He also owns several of the adjacent fields, but they aren't shown here for clarity



- Photograph taken at the location on the map marked by the gold star, looking in the direction of the orange arrow