
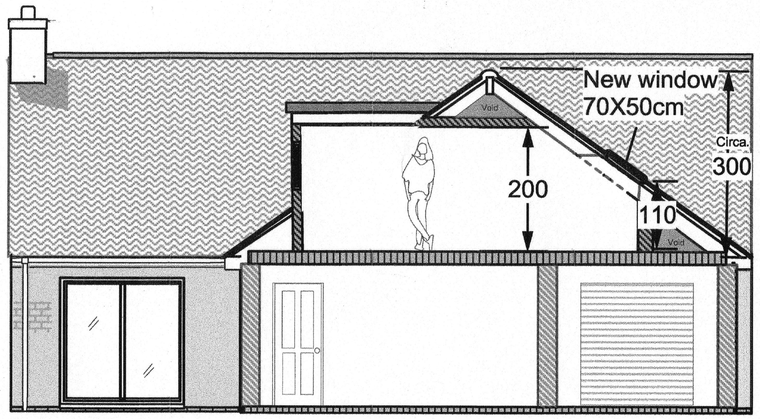
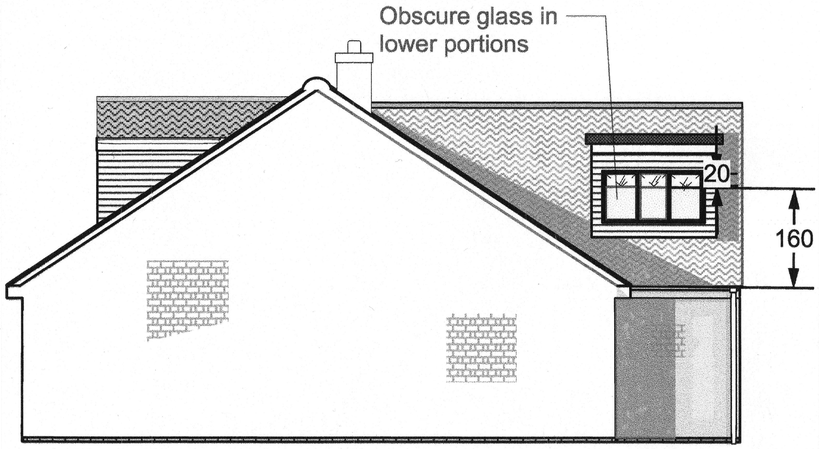
South East Elevation Existing

North East Elevation Exisiting



North East Elevation proposed- section A -A

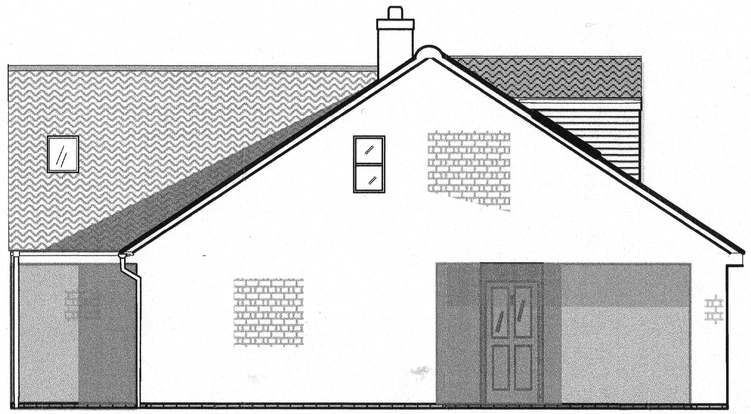


South East Elevation Proposed

North East Elevation Proposed

0 200 400 600 800 1000 cm

South West (front) Elevation will remain unchanged



Proposed North West Elevation

Notes:

Drawings to support the application of works to 4 The Ridge, Bradford-on-Avon, BA15 1BS.
Installing a dormer window to bedroom 3 where the current roof window is. Lower portion of new window will be obscure glass.
Opposite will be a new roof window- 70cm x 50cm.

NOTES FROM BUILDER :
150x 150mm timbers used for construction of dormer with cladding to match existing dormer on front of building.150mm Celotex insulation
Roof 18mm T & G osb board with rubberised roof.
Windows to match exisiting on ground floor and front dormer.

Section drawing is an illustration for the purpose of planning application to demonstrate the intended size and look - structure will be designed by a qualified structural engineer and builder.

Kate Jones Design Studio

Title: Elevations	No. 02/03
Scale: 1:100 @A3	Verify all dimensions before commencing work and report suspected discrepencies or omissions. These are not architects construction drawings or building regulation drawings- always consult a structural engineer and all other relevant building specialists.
Client: Rachael Courage	