FISHERTON STREET 1. 1594 (North Side) Congregational Church SU 1429 NW 3/462 SU 1430 SW 1/462 II 2. 1879 by Tarring and Wilkinson. Asymmetrical, Style of circa 1300. Stone rubble and stone dressings. Tower with corner buttresses and pinnacles. Stone spire with canopies in broaches. Short link with body of Church with 3 pointed columned lights. Large gable end to nave with large south window of 5 lights quatrefoil tracery to arch and colonettes dividing. 3 pointed lights below with curved steps. Lean-to with gabled doorway to left. Main entrance in foot of tower, 3 centred moulded arch set in elaborately carved, diamond patterned gable with finial.

Heritage Statement

Salisbury United Reformed Church

Grade II Listed Building

Listing No. 1355795