If you intend carrying out works in the vicinity of the site boundary, you are also advised that it may be expedient to seek your own advice with regard to the requirements of the Party Wall Act 1996.

8 Birds' nests are legally protected when in use, as are birds' eggs and unfledged young. Clearance of hedges, shrubs and scrub should take place outside the bird breeding season (1st March to 31st August). If clearance in the breeding season cannot be avoided, the vegetation should first be checked by an experienced ecologist to ascertain the absence of breeding birds. If breeding birds are present the vegetation around their nest should be retained until all young have fledged.
