Relax, we've got you covered

Dear Ms Bond,

Thank you for choosing us to protect your Stoves cooker. We are always trying to improve the service we give to our customers. As part of this commitment, your protection for your cooker is becoming an insurance product, and your terms and conditions have been made easier to understand. You will not need to do anything differently for this to occur.

Now all the great benefits you currently get will be provided by Domestic & General Insurance PLC, part of our Domestic & General Group. We've changed your agreement number to the policy number shown above and your new Direct Debit details are overleaf for your information. To continue your protection and accept these new terms and conditions simply carry on making your Direct Debit payments.

You will be protected against breakdown and accidental damage, and if we're unable to fix your Stoves cooker then we will replace it for you.
