

27TH October 2025

Dear Sir / Madam,

Re: Planning Application PL/2025/06615

The Courtyard Upper Seagry Management Ltd wish to bring to your attention a restrictive covenant for which they are beneficiaries. The restrictive covenant is detailed in paragraph 4 of the attached Deed WT51153:

4^A [THE Vendor to the intent that the covenant hereinafter mentioned may so far as possible bind all persons who now or hereafter shall become entitled to any estate or interest in the retained land or any part thereof and so as to benefit the property or any part thereof but not so as to bind the Vendor or any person after he or they shall have parted with all his or their estate and interest in the retained land HEREBY COVENANTS with the Purchaser that the Vendor and his successors in title to the retained land will not use or permit the use of the land immediately to the south of the Cricket Ground (which said land is hatched green on the plan attached to a transfer dated 30th June 1978 made between Margaret MacLellan Head Patrick William Head and Penelope Jane Head registered as Entry Number 1 in the Charges Register related to the Title herein) for any purpose other than agriculture or poultry farming or erect or permit to be erected any buildings upon the said land] B

We trust you will respect this covenant in considering the planning application.

Best wishes

Georgina Williams

Secretary to The Courtyard Upper Seagry Management Ltd.