

WiltshireTimes

Serving Trowbridge, Melksham, Bradford on Avon, Westbury and Warminster since 1854

£1.70

wiltshiretimes.co.uk

Friday, October 31, 2025

Leisure masterplan at risk over cost concerns

PAGE 5

Bright night for carnival

PAGE 14

Wetherspoons ordered to pay worker £25k over staff meal: P6

Driver locked up for pavement hit-and-run

Teen propped up against tree

A DANGEROUS driver who left a seriously injured teenager on the roadside after mounting the pavement and hitting him near a school has been put behind bars.

Lewis Hobbs, 32, of Ramsbury Walk in Trowbridge, was jailed for 27 months after admitting causing serious injury by dangerous driving. He mounted the pavement in Holbrook Lane and

Jason Hughes
jason.hughes@newsquest.co.uk struck a 19-year-old pedestrian. Police said Hobbs got out of his car, placed the teenager against a tree and drove off.

The young man had suffered a broken leg.

■ Full story: Page 7

PAGE 4

One 'seriously injured' in four-car crash

WIN £100 theatre voucher

PAGE 24

WONDERFUL RANGE OF TREES & SHRUBS

BEAUTIFUL PLANTS GROWN ON BRITISH NURSERIES

• Bedding & Annuals • Perennials • Veg & Herbs • Trees & Shrubs • Climbers • Roses

PLUS: Pots & Planters • Compost • Fertilisers & Chemicals

• Bulbs & Seeds • Tools • Sundries

OPEN 7 DAYS A WEEK: Monday - Saturday 9am-6pm, Sunday 10am-5pm

www.the-nursery.co.uk

THE NURSERY

GIFT VOUCHERS AVAILABLE HERE

Marsh Road, Hilperton, Wiltshire BA14 7PL • Tel 01225 571331