

South East Elevation Existing

North East Elevation Existing

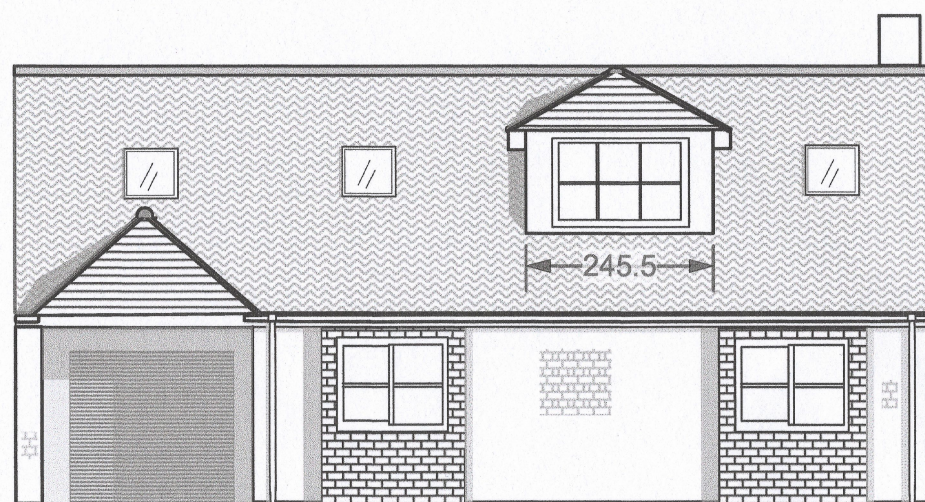

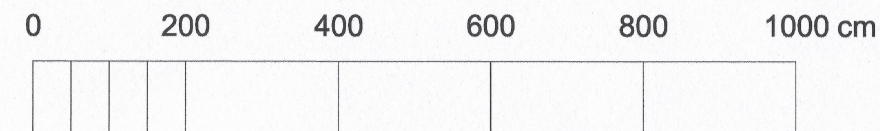

North East Elevation proposed- section A -A

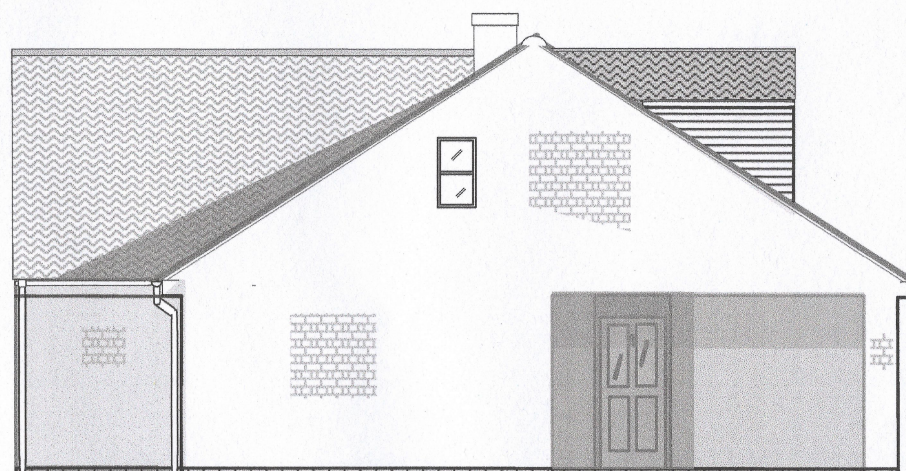

South East Elevation Proposed

North East Elevation Proposed

South West (front) Elevation will remain unchanged

North West Elevation will remain unchanged

Notes:

Drawings to support the application of works to 4 The Ridge, Bradford-on-Avon, BA15 1BS. Installing a dormer window to bedroom 3 where the current roof window is.

NOTES FROM BUILDER :

150x 150mm timbers used for construction of dormer with cladding to match existing dormer on front of building.
150mm Celotex insulation
Roof 18mm T & G osb board with rubberised roof.
Windows to match existing on ground floor and front dormer.

Section drawing is an illustration for the purpose of planning application to demonstrate the intended size and look - structure will be designed by a qualified structural engineer and builder.

Kate Jones Design Studio

Title: Elevations

No. 02/03

Scale: 1:100 @A3

Verify all dimensions before commencing work and report suspected discrepancies or omissions. These are not architects construction drawings or building regulation drawings- always consult a structural engineer and all other relevant building specialists.

Client: Rachael Courage