Dear Kate

TOWN AND COUNTY PLANNING ACT 1990 (as amended)
APPROVAL OF DETAILS RESERVED BY CONDITION

Application No:	PL/2025/09111
Proposal:	Discharge of conditions 3 (EV Charging) and 4 (Materials) relating to application PL/2025/04414.
Site Address:	Land off Melksham Road, Holt, Wiltshire
On Behalf Of:	Bewley Homes Bewley Homes, Inhurst House, Brimpton Road, United Kingdom

I refer to your application for the discharge of condition(s) attached to the above planning permission dated 17 November 2025. After careful consideration, the following decision has been made:

Condition(s) submitted for consideration:

Condition 3:

EV charging points shall be provided in accordance with approved drawing No EV Charging Plan EVCP.01_B. No development above slab level shall occur until final details of the electric vehicle charge points that will be provided to each property has been submitted to and approved in writing by the local planning authority. Details shall include, but not necessarily be limited to location, number, dimensions and manufacturer's details. The development shall be carried out in accordance with the approved details prior to occupation of the associated dwelling.

REASON: In order to define the terms of the permission and in order to support and encourage sustainable construction in accordance with policies CP41, CP55, CP57 and CP60 of the Wiltshire Core Strategy are achieved.

Decision: The details submitted in relation to this condition are satisfactory and the condition is hereby discharged.

Condition 4:

No development above slab level shall commence until the details of the materials to be used in the walls, roofs and windows have been submitted to and approved in writing by the Local Planning Authority. The development shall then be carried out in accordance with the approved details.

REASON: In the interests of ensuring that the quality of materials is acceptable for the visual amenity and the character and appearance of the area.

Decision: The details submitted in relation to this condition are satisfactory and are hereby discharged.

Please note that in accordance with national planning guidance, discharge of condition applications are procedural in nature and do not require public consultation. While third-party representations may occasionally be received, they are not formally invited and do not form part of the statutory decision-making process. The assessment of this application has been based solely on whether the submitted details satisfy the requirements of the relevant planning condition(s).

This letter acts as official confirmation and therefore I suggest that you attach it to the decision notice as evidence that you have complied with the requirements of the relevant condition(s).

Yours faithfully

Head of Development Management

NOTES:

1. Approved Conditions:

If the condition(s) have been discharged, you may proceed with the development in accordance with the approved details. Please ensure that the approved documents or plans are implemented on-site and adhered to as part of the development. It is important to comply with all conditions of the planning permission to ensure the development remains lawful.

2. Refused Conditions:

If the discharge of the condition(s) has been refused, you may submit revised details or further information to address the issues raised as part of a further discharge of the condition's application. Please ensure that any resubmission adequately addresses the reasons for refusal. Alternatively, you can appeal the Council's decision (see below for details).

3. Partially Discharged Conditions:

If the condition(s) have been partially discharged, the remaining details that are required must be submitted for further consideration. You should provide the necessary documents in accordance with any timeframe or trigger specified in the condition to allow for the full discharge of the condition(s).

Right of Appeal:

If you are aggrieved by the decision to refuse to discharge a condition or if the condition has only been partially discharged, you have the right to appeal the decision to the Planning Inspectorate.

The appeal must be made within 6 months from the date of this decision notice. If the appeal is submitted after this 6 month period, the Planning Inspectorate will only consider it if there are exceptional circumstances.

The procedure for making an appeal is set out under Section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended), along with the relevant provisions in the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004. For detailed guidance on how to submit your appeal, please visit the Planning Inspectorate's website:

<https://www.gov.uk/appeal-planning-decision>

Please be aware that the appeal process will focus on whether the submitted details meet the requirements set out in the original planning condition(s) and relevant planning policies.
