

Fosgate House Tennis Court – Site area photos

Figure 6

01 Standing at the south end of the proposed court area looking north to where the court would be built in the immediate foreground.

02 Standing at the north end of the proposed court area looking south to where the court would be built in the immediate foreground.

03 The view of the proposed court area from the west side looking east towards the house (which would be 42 metres from the court area).

04 Standing at the east side of the proposed court area looking west to where the court would be built in the immediate foreground.