Details

In the entry for: CORSHAM BAKERS CORNER ST 86 NE Neston 1/4 Nos 4 to 10 (even) II The description shall be amended to read: Farmhouse with addition and attached cowhouse, now 4 dwellings. c1700; early-mid C18, converted, added to and altered 1919 and again c1985. Rubble stone with interlocking tile roofs, concrete to No 10. Original farmhouse (nos 6 and 8) of 1½ storeys, 2 bays, with another, low, bay linking to former cowhouse, now 1½ storeys, 2 bays (no 10). Projecting from front right of farmhouse is early-mid C18 addition (no 4) which is gable-end on, of 2 storeys with basement and attic, and which has 2-storey, 2-bay 1919 addition to right. Windows are mostly flat-faced mullioned windows with bead-moulded surrounds. Former farmhouse (nos 6 and 8) : board door (to no 8) in quoined, bead-moulded surround; windows of 2 lights and 1 light to left; later, larger, 2-light window with raised surround to right; two 2-light gabled attic dormers (gables rebuilt); roof steps down between left-hand ground floor windows, with later corniced stack at change in roof line and old ridge stack with shouldered base in line with doorway. Former cowhouse (no 10) to left: former wood-lintelled doorway to through-passage on right, blocked and with 2-light window; 2-light catslide dormer above and 2-light window to left; left bay has early C20 outshut under catslide roof with side-entry and large late C20 dormer window; C20 stacks to ridge and left end. Farmhouse addition (no 4) projecting to front right: ashlar quoins; c1985 3-light basement window; restored ground-floor window formerly of 3 lights; c1985 3-light window above; original 2-light attic window; attic window with dripstone, others with hoodmoulds, all offset to left; raised verge with ashlar coping on moulded kneelers; corniced, ashlar, gable stack and another to rear gable. To right the 1919 extension has quoins; board stable door on left with quoined surround and gabled porch; two 2-light windows to each floor; end stack to right. To left side of addition, in angle with main farmhouse, is pent-roofed, coursed-stone porch having plinth, 1-light window to end wall, and in left side a raised moulded door surround, with board door (to no 6), and above (to addition) a blocked 2-light window with hoodmould. Rear: main range has early C20 added single-storey wash-kitchen wing with quoins, quoined door and window to right return, and corniced stack: to right of wing is a 2-light window and to left one light remains of a former wider window; further left, wood lintel above former doorway, now with 2-light window; later 2-light window left again. Former cowhouse has blocked former doorway to through-passage, now with 2-light window, and C20 doorway and dormers. Right return: end wall of main range is masked on ground floor by added outshut (not of special interest) but on 1st floor are windows of 1 and 2 lights; kneeler stones to gable and ashlar coping with base of finial; later stack to right side. Gable of 1919 extension has paired quoined doorways to right, that to far right formerly to privy (now blocked and with window). Interior: deeply-chamfered cross-beams in right-hand room of main range (no 6). No 4 has stone surrounds to corner fireplaces on ground, 1st and attic floors (on 1st floor with raised moulding, on attic elliptically-arched); chamfered beam with lamb's tongue stops to ground and 1st floor; blocked former doorway through to main range on 1st floor; 2-bay roof with principal rafter truss. 2 tiers of butt purlins and diagonally-set ridge piece.

CORSHAM BAKERS CORNER, Neston ST 86 NE 1/4 Nos 4 to 10 (even) II

Row of 4 cottages, early C18 with additions, rubble stone with Bridgwater tile roofs. No 4 at north end has original range gable- ended to road with C19 extensions to north. Original range has coped gables, end stacks and bead-moulded mullion windows, one blocked 2-light to south side first floor over lean-to ashlar porch with plank door in raised moulded surround to front and single light to east side. Door gives access to No 6. East end wall has 2-light attic window, 3-light to first and ground floors, with hoodmoulds. Attached to south, Nos 6 and 8 are one and half storey with ridge and south stacks, 2 dormer gables, 2-window range of 2- light bead-moulded windows and central door (to No 8). No 8 has painted walling and one single light to left structurally part of No 10. No 10 has similar windows, one 2-light in catslide dormer over former door, now with 2-light and one 2-light to left. Extension projects to left with door in angle, casement pair to front and C20 dormer above.
