Dear Jessica,

Planning Consultation: Outline (AMR except access) for up to 49 dwellings, provision of cemetery with access & associated works.

Site: Land south of The Forty and North of Chelworth Road, Cricklade, Wiltshire

Natural England notes that your authority, as competent authority, has undertaken an appropriate assessment of the proposal in accordance with regulation 63 of the Conservation of Species and Habitats Regulations 2017 (as amended). Natural England is a statutory consultee on the appropriate assessment stage of the Habitats Regulations Assessment process.

Your appropriate assessment concludes that your authority is able to ascertain that the proposal will not result in adverse effects on the integrity of any of the sites in question. Having considered the assessment, and the measures proposed to mitigate for all identified adverse effects that could potentially occur as a result of the proposal,

Natural England advises that we concur with the assessment conclusions, providing that all mitigation measures are appropriately secured in any planning permission given.

Please accept this email as our required statutory response to your consultation.

Kind Regards

Charlotte
