Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

All repairs are welcome. Should any of the windows prove beyond repair please let me know and we can discuss whether consent is required.

In terms of the proposals affecting the western 1900 extension, I am comfortable with the small extension, internal works and the western elevation doors. I do have concerns about the northern window/door (I'm not really sure what is intended, there are references to an opening door but also retaining the sash), it isn't normally appropriate to have garden doors on the front elevation.

Removal of paint from the northern elevation is something that needs some exploration – it was surely painted for a reason, but a small test panel would be the first step – this could be done in advance of consent to facilitate earlier discussion and conclusion.

It's unfortunate that we didn't discuss the swimming pool and pool building when on site. I appreciate that the division of ownership of the site has left the property with no rear garden, and that the options are limited, while the front garden is huge. With regard to the pool, I do think it should be a few metres further from the house than shown. I have no elevations of the outbuilding to consider. The N entrance is a generous open space, and while planting is something that we cannot control, it would retain more of the grandeur of the entrance if the hedge position were to be revised to the NW corner and bellied out westwards as much as possible.

I hope this is useful and sufficient, I would be happy discuss any of the elements further,

Kind regards

Andrew

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

☐ Yes

☒ No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 & Regulation 6 - Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Regulations 1990

Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.

Is the applicant the sole owner of all the land to which this application relates; and has the applicant been the sole owner for more than 21 days?

☒ Yes

☐ No

Is any of the land to which the application relates part of an Agricultural Holding?

☐ Yes

☒ No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate A

I certify/The applicant certifies that on the day 21 days before the date of this application nobody except myself/the applicant was the owner* of any part of the land or building to which the application relates, and that none of the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, an agricultural holding

 'owner' is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.

* 'agricultural holding' has the meaning given by reference to the definition of 'agricultural tenant' in section 65(8) of the Act.

NOTE: You should sign Certificate B, C or D, as appropriate, if you are the sole owner of the land or building to which the application relates but the land is, or is part of, an agricultural holding.
