Dear Sir/Madam

Application No:	PL/2026/01555
Application Type	Approval of reserved matters
Proposal:	A reserved matters application (appearance, layout, scale and landscaping) for 229 dwellings and associated infrastructure – Reserved Matters pursuant to Outline permission PL/2023/11188
Site Address:	Land at Blackmore Farm, Sandridge Common, Melksham, SN12 7QS

Please find attached the site notice for your planning application. It is a requirement of planning law that a site notice must be displayed for a period of 21 days for this proposed development. We request that the applicant/agent assists us in this respect by displaying the notice as soon as possible and email photographs of it in situ to the planning officer's email address shown below. Please ensure the site notice is placed in a prominent location where it is clearly visible to the public.

Please note, this notice is waterproof and will therefore not need to be placed in a plastic wallet.

steven.sims@wiltshire.gov.uk

If you are unable to display the notice, please email the officer above as soon as possible in order that we are aware of the need to erect a notice.

The notice will be recorded as being displayed by the planning officer during his/her inspection of the site. If the notice is not displayed at the time of the visit, it may delay the planning application decision.

Thank you for your co-operation in this matter.

Yours faithfully,
Head of Development Management
