

No email or letter was received from the LPA advising of the change to the description.

There were a number of emails exchanged which resulting in a revision of the design, which was formally agreed between ourselves and the LPA, but at no point was there an email expressly stating that the description of the works would (need to) be changed or any agreement to do so, although we would have agreed to it were we formally asked.