

22 April 2026

Dear Sir/Madam

TOWN AND COUNTY PLANNING ACT 1990 (as amended)
APPROVAL OF DETAILS RESERVED BY CONDITION

Application No:	PL/2026/01560
Proposal:	This submission relates to planning permission PL/2025/10011 and seeks to discharge Condition 3 (Materials) by providing details of the proposed materials for the brick plinth, timber cladding, roofing, doors and windows.
Site Address:	Ashlee, College Road, Durrington, Salisbury, SP4 8AW
On Behalf Of:	Mr Andrew Fenner Ashlee, College Road, Durrington, Salisbury, United Kingdom, SP4 8AW

I refer to your application for the discharge of condition(s) attached to the above planning permission dated 06 March 2026. After careful consideration, the following decision has been made:

Condition(s) submitted for consideration:

Condition 3:

3. Prior to commencement above slab level of the development hereby permitted, details of the materials to be used in the construction of the works to include the brick plinth, timber cladding, roof material, doors and windows shall be submitted to and approved in writing by the LPA. Development shall be carried out in accordance with the approved detail.

REASON: In the interests of visual amenity and the character and appearance of the area.

Details Submitted for Approval:

Discharge of Condition 3 – Materials Schedule, received 23/03/2026

Doors_DATA SHEET_Alitherm Heritage 60, received 23/03/2026

Roof_EPDM_ProductSheet, received 23/03/2026

Decision: The details submitted in relation to this condition are approved.

Reason for Decision:

The proposed bricks are confirmed to be reclaimed from the existing building and are 'Forterra LBC Heather' facing bricks. The timber cladding is confirmed to be 50mm wide vertical larch cladding, left untreated and allowed to weather naturally. The roof material will be a 'Firestone RubberCover EPDM membrane'. The doors are confirmed to be 'Smart Systems Alitetherm Heritage 60 range' in graphite. The windows are proposed to be 'Liniar 70mm casement windows' uPVC with slim frames, also graphite in colour. The proposals are considered acceptable and will maintain the visual amenity and the character and appearance of the area.

Please note that in accordance with national planning guidance, discharge of condition applications are procedural in nature and do not require public consultation. While third-party representations may occasionally be received, they are not formally invited and do not form part of the statutory decision-making process. The assessment of this application has been based solely on whether the submitted details satisfy the requirements of the relevant planning condition(s).

This letter acts as official confirmation and therefore I suggest that you attach it to the decision notice as evidence that you have complied with the requirements of the relevant condition(s).

Yours faithfully

Head of Development Management

NOTES:

1. Approved Conditions:

If the condition(s) have been discharged, you may proceed with the development in accordance with the approved details. Please ensure that the approved documents or plans are implemented on-site and adhered to as part of the development. It is important to comply with all conditions of the planning permission to ensure the development remains lawful.

2. Refused Conditions:

If the discharge of the condition(s) has been refused, you may submit revised details or further information to address the issues raised as part of a further discharge of the condition's application. Please ensure that any resubmission adequately addresses the reasons for refusal. Alternatively, you can appeal the Council's decision (see below for details).

3. Partially Discharged Conditions:

If the condition(s) have been partially discharged, the remaining details that are required must be submitted for further consideration. You should provide the necessary documents in accordance with any timeframe or trigger specified in the condition to allow for the full discharge of the condition(s).

Right of Appeal:

If you are aggrieved by the decision to refuse to discharge a condition or if the condition has only been partially discharged, you have the right to appeal the decision to the Planning Inspectorate.

The appeal must be made within 6 months from the date of this decision notice. If the appeal is submitted after this 6 month period, the Planning Inspectorate will only consider it if there are exceptional circumstances.

The procedure for making an appeal is set out under Section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended), along with the relevant provisions in the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004.

For detailed guidance on how to submit your appeal, please visit the Planning Inspectorate's website:

<https://www.gov.uk/appeal-planning-decision>

Please be aware that the appeal process will focus on whether the submitted details meet the requirements set out in the original planning condition(s) and relevant planning policies.
