Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

Demolish existing single blockwork & corrugated roof utility room & polycarbonate sheet link. Extend out to end of building creating a dedicated utility, open plan kitchen & living room, bifold doors to open onto main garden, extend size of the bathroom & install below ground rainwater harvesting tank to take rain from gutters. New extension to have sedum living roof, extension & gable ends to be clad in larch and with swift boxes installed under eaves to prevent nests that currently fall from existing materials on house.

Has the work already been started without consent?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Materials

Does the proposed development require any materials to be used externally?

- ☒ Yes
☐ No

Please provide a description of existing and proposed materials and finishes to be used externally (including type, colour and name for each material)

Type:

Walls

Existing materials and finishes:

Currently the gable ends are rendered masonry with the west facing side with a horizontal crack through it with moss ingress. Structural engineer suggested drainage issue as down pipes currently clothed in concrete that wraps around building. Issue with the render is that the house martin nests fall from it as the nests fail to adhere successfully to it. Main walls -front and rear are reconstituted stone construction.

Proposed materials and finishes:

Proposed for both gable ends and new extension - natural larch cladding 20mm x 144mm to soften to a grey over time. Horizontal on the new single storey extension and vertical on the gable ends. Built into the new cladding would be swift nesting boxes and perches underneath the eaves.

Type:

Windows

Existing materials and finishes:

UPVC white windows that currently form condensation on the inside.

Proposed materials and finishes:

Bifolds & new window Aluminum Anthracite Grey 7016 with aim of replacing existing windows to match.

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Pre-application Advice

Has assistance or prior advice been sought from the local authority about this application?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)
