

I paid the CIL (approx £25,000) and complied with the pre commencement conditions.

I applied to building control and constructed the foundations.

I have recently realised I missed the condition relating to the sample wall.

I have now constructed the sample wall and it is on display on site

Currently the condition states: "No development shall commence on site..."

Could it be updated to say "No above ground development shall commence on site..."