You don't often get email from andrew.sturgess@aico.co.uk. Learn why this is important

Hi All,

As requested

We've decided to go for actual slate due to imitation being too stark. This should be more in keeping with the surrounding area

For the render

Thank you Brook. I have emailed the contractor and client to request the details, and I have asked them to copy you in to avoid any delay.

Hi [REDACTED]

Could you provide the details of the specific finishes for the extension that the planner has requested. I would like to avoid a finishes condition if possible, as this would require an additional application.
