

Whilst we are grateful that the LPA's appeal statement supports the building and we note that the client has subsequently been approached with a suggestion to submit a Certificate of Lawfulness as this has operated for over 10 years, we do object to their statement being 1236 words which is contrary to new legislation restricting statements to 250 words