Hi,

I have objected to plans for our neighbours property due to a potential massive invasion to our privacy. I took this picture of what they will look directly on to and have attached another of our garden. I have drawn where the master window is due to be based on the plans, and the tree / bush is the property of 30 Manton Hollow, thus no doubt would need to be removed during the building works – therefore having a direct view of our garden, the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] There is a perfect space for the master window to look directly west, avoiding directly looking into our house and garden.

I look forward to hearing from you.
