Dear Sirs

Re: Land at Holly Bush Cottage, Charlton. SP7 0EL

Please see the enclosed planning application for the erection of a barn at the above. This application follows an email from Ms Houldsworth below.

The applicants will make any fee payment direct once we have a reference.

Yours faithfully

T Bell

Good morning,

I am the case officer dealing with the above mentioned application.

I have reviewed the submitted details and note that the site is 2.4ha, therefore the application would fall under Class B of the GDPO which states the following:

As the site is under 5ha, no PD rights exist for a new building and therefore the proposal would require planning permission.

Considering the above please can you liaise with the applicant and confirm whether they wish to withdraw the current application?

Kind regards,

Amy Houldsworth

Conservation and Planning Officer
