

Setting and wider view

Figure 4. Wider view showing the detached house, formal principal elevation and relationship of the central entrance to the adjoining garage and garden.

The proposed deep blue-green finish is confined to the door leaf and will remain subordinate to the limestone ashlar facade and its architectural composition.